

GOLD MUSEUM OF PERÚ. From the Miguel Mujica Gallo Foundation
 Daily departures, private service
 Cod-104

It is the wish of the Miguel Mujica Gallo Foundation, to show the world the beauty and quality of pieces from different cultures, both from Peruvian heritage, which are exhibited in the "Oro del Perú" museum and from various countries around the world, on display at the "Weapons of the World" museum. We cannot fail to mention that such collections of pieces are the product of a patriot who knew how to use his life and fortune in favor of culture.

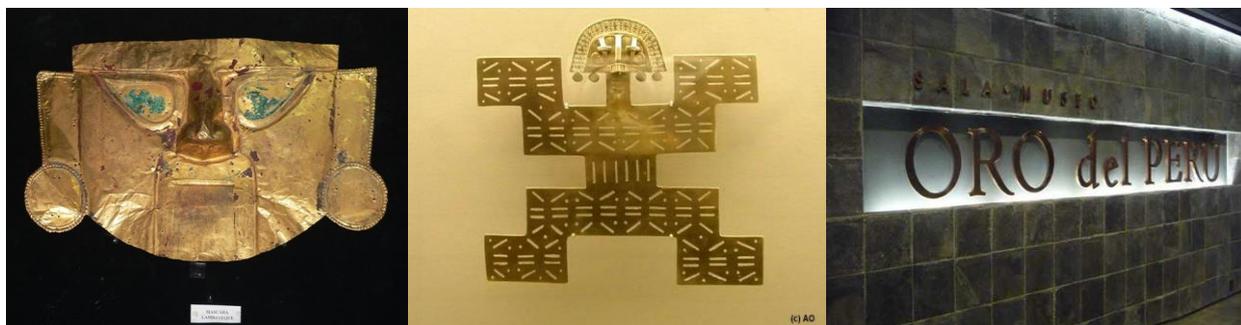

Our Foundation has been formed for altruistic purposes, to protect the stability of the Museums and to make them, now and always, the tourist attraction of our beloved city.

Miguel Mujica Gallo, a distinguished Lima gentleman, a businessman linked to important and varied economic activities in his country, was also - and it could be said that above all - a collector of international fame: a cultured man, passionate about the great historical and artistic tradition From Peru. But this characteristic of his did not prevent his interest and curiosity from spreading to other nations, even the most geographically distant from his homeland; as anyone can see - see his extraordinary collection of weapons: twenty thousand pieces from all times and from all countries - which is, among those collected by private effort, one of the most remarkable in the world.

During his many travels around the world, he gathered very interesting pieces (some of them real jewels) and weapons that belonged to famous people in history. Pieces that are presented today in an environment prepared to receive the public and transport them to other historical moments.
